

Argyle LifeGroup Study Guide: ReFocus, part 4, Nov. 4

1. Read Genesis 1:26. God created in us a _____ for Him and a _____ for each other because we are created in His image and God is a relational being. Discuss.
2. Our spirit was intentionally created in His likeness so that we could have a _____ with Him. What does it mean to you that we can have a relationship with our creator?
3. Intellectually, we were created to be able to reason and to choose.
That's the _____ of God. What does that mean to you?
4. Conscientiously, Adam was created in righteousness. Before sin he was innocent before God.
That's the _____ of God. What does that mean to you?
5. Relationally, we were created for companionship and to live in community.
That's the _____ of God. What does that mean to you?
6. Since Adam and Eve were made in God's image, they were created with the right to choose. And even though they were created with a righteous nature, Adam and Eve made an evil choice against God. Read Romans 5:12. Discuss.
7. God did not leave us defeated in our sin. What did He do for us?
8. God never intended for us to do life alone. It is God's design for other people to help grow our faith and for us to help other people grow their faith. What are some ways that we can do that?
9. Who was one of the original small group leaders? How does that affect your view of groups?
10. Who we are inside, our heart is so important. Read each these verses from Proverbs and discuss their meaning. Proverbs 4:23, 14:30, 15:13, 17:20, 21:2, 23:7
11. "Who you are" is going to impact "who you know" and "what you do".
What are some steps you can take to develop, grow and protect who you are?
12. Read Hebrews 10:25.
"Let us encourage one another."
The best way to effectively encourage someone is to know them.
We need to be meeting together with people we are doing life with.
People who know us and we can share our hearts with.
They can encourage us, walk with us and pray with us.
