

Argyle LifeGroup Study Guide: The Path, part 10

1. Do you think the way kids are raised today will lead to a healthy home?

Why or why not?

2. Read Proverbs 24:3. A healthy home is built by _____. What does that mean?

3. What is wisdom? Wisdom is _____ things the same way that God sees them.

What are some ways that we can do that?

4. Read Proverbs 24:3 again. A healthy home is built by wisdom and is established by understanding. Understanding takes the wisdom of God and puts it in charge of our _____ . How can God's wisdom be in charge of our decisions?

5. Church people love to fill themselves with the knowledge of the Bible, but it's a completely different thing to take God's Word and actually apply it to all of our life.

Have you ever been guilty of that?

6. Read Proverbs 24:4. An important part of building a healthy home includes the interior design. What does that mean?

7. Priority means putting something higher in importance, rank or privilege.

Notice that it's something you do. It's something you choose. People do what they want to do.

Do you agree?

8. Take a few minutes to share your thoughts about each of the

Five Priorities to Building a Healthy Home:

1. Home before career

If you put you job before your home, you're not making a wise choice.

2. Spouse before kids

May I suggest this order for your life if you're married with kids: God, Spouse, Kids

3. Kids before friends

You need a weekly date night.

4. Spouse before self

Read Ephesians 5:25 (Men step up. Ladies get a pass. Men love to play that "wives submit" card. Save it. Men, if you do your part, the ladies will respond. Just saying.)

5. God before everything

When we put God before everything, everything else falls into it's proper place.
